

CORBETT SAYS POOH,
GO FIGHT O'DONNELLCHAMPION REFUSES TO MEET
FITZSIMMONS.

Will Not Notice His Challenge Until the Australian Has Whipped Some Man in the Heavy Weight Class—Battle with Creedon Was a Short One.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Corbett says that Fitzsimmons must meet Steve O'Donnell before he will notice him or his challenge. He says Fitzsimmons has never yet tackled a heavy-weight even of the second class and has nothing at all to justify his pretensions. Nevertheless Fitzsimmons proved himself a champion indeed last night by settling Dan Creedon in less than two rounds in the Olympic club arena. As a fight the meeting of the middle-weight champion and his challenger was a farce. Fitzsimmons felt his man in the first round, in which there was no effective blow struck. During the minute's caretaking in his corner Fitzsimmons told Jack Dempsey, whom he had slowly knocked out of pugilism in the same ring, that he would finish Creedon in the round to come. He did his work terrifically. Before a minute had gone Fitzsimmons was rushing Creedon as he had rushed Hall and others, and with one of those terrific right half-swings for which he is famous caught Creedon full, but high on the jaw, driving him off his feet. Creedon got up within his time allowance. Fitzsimmons gave his man no rest.

He was on and over him again and landed two but half-full rights on the jaw and side of the head. Creedon, staggering, had the saving sense to clinch, and the referee had to force the fighters apart. Creedon was staggering as he was forced back.

Dodging around Duffy Fitzsimmons rushed at Creedon like a demon, gave him three drives on the body with left and right, and two on the side of the head and above the jaw, missing the vital spot. But as Creedon staggered in for another clinch Fitzsimmons saw his chance and took it. Over went his left hand, used but three or four times during the fight, and, catching Creedon full on the jaw point, the blow drove him down unconscious. It was not so terrible a blow as that which settled Hall. Such a punch was not needed. Fitzsimmons seemed to know that and to take off something from its full force. Creedon fell like a log and lay like one. He had to be carried, limp and unconscious, to his corner, and it was eight minutes after the decision in Fitzsimmons' favor had been made before he was able to open his eyes. Creedon was never in the fight. Outclassed and outfought he suffered the fate of others, and there is one middleweight championship aspirant less.

The actual fighting time was four minutes and forty seconds. Creedon weighed 155 pounds and Fitzsimmons 155½.

An hour before the contestants entered the ring Fitzsimmons received a dispatch from New York authorizing him to challenge Corbett for the ring for a finish fight for $20,000 and the belt. This was kept quiet until Fitz had achieved his victory, when he communicated the contents of the dispatch to Referee Duffy and asked him to announce the challenge.

Fitzsimmons' challenge to Corbett was wildly cheered. The best experts in pugilism at the ringside think he has a great chance with Corbett and Fitzsimmons can get backing for $50,000 for such a match.

Within ten minutes after the termination of the fight President Scholl of the Olympic club telegraphed to Corbett offering a purse of $25,000 for a meeting between Corbett and Fitzsimmons before the Olympic club at any time and at any weights.

For the Proposed Pacific Cable.
OTTAWA, Ontario, Sept. 27.—From the minister of trade and commerce it is learned that the prospects of a large number of bids being received for the laying and operation of the proposed Pacific cable are good. "The chances are," said Mr. Bonell, "that the prominent cable making companies in the world will be in vigorous competition for the contract."

Hassett to Run Morton's Campaign.
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Charles W. Hassett of Utica will manage the campaign for Levi P. Morton. At the Fifth Avenue hotel yesterday he was unanimously elected chairman of the republican state committee to succeed William Brookfield.

BOLT AGAINST BRYAN.

Nebraska Administration Democrats Refuse Fusion.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 27.—Nebraska democrats split over fusion last night and at midnight, after hours of wrangling, the administration men bolted when Judge Holcomb, the populist candidate, was named for governor.

The ticket was then completed as follows, on the lines of the Bryan faction: Governor, Judge Holcomb; Lieutenant-governor, J. N. Gaffin; secretary of state, F. R. Ellich; treasurer, J. A. Linkhardt; attorney-general, D. B. Carey; auditor, J. C. Dahman; commissioner public lands and buildings, S. J. Kent; superintendent public instruction, W. A. Jones.

Holcomb, Gaffin, Carey, Kent and Jones are populist nominees. The regular convention then adjourned.

The 104 bolters at once organized into a separate convention and began the work of selecting a straight democratic ticket.

A state ticket was nominated by the bolters, including the delegates of six counties. The bolters' convention then adjourned after adopting a platform similar to the other excepting that it favors a gold basis.

But before the bolt the convention showed by its unanimous indorsement of William Jennings Bryan for the senate that he was the favorite son.

After renewing their allegiance to Jeffersonian principles, the Bryan platform expresses the belief that "public office is a public trust," and that all men are created equal, the income tax is indorsed, the election of senators by the people advocated, and an amendment to the constitution making a President ineligible to re-election favored. The report at length reviews the A. P. A. question and denounces that movement in severe terms and concludes with the following clause in favor of silver:

"We indorse the language used by John G. Carlisle, in 1878, when he denounced the 'conspiracy' to destroy silver money as 'the most gigantic crime of this or any other age,' and we agree with him that 'the consummation of such a scheme would ultimately entail more misery upon the human race than all the wars, pestilences and famines that ever occurred in the history of the world.' We are not willing to be parties to such a crime, and in order to undo the wrong already done, and to prevent the further depreciation of money, we favor the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation on earth."

"We regard the right to issue money as an attribute of sovereignty and believe that all money needed to supplement the gold and silver coinage of the constitution and to make the dollar stable in purchasing power that it will defraud neither debtor or creditor should be issued by the general government, as the greenbacks were issued, that such money were redeemable in coin, the government to exercise the option of redeeming in gold or silver, whichever is the more convenient for the government."

"We believe that all money issued by the government, whether gold, silver, or paper, should be made a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and that no citizen should be permitted to demonetize by contract that which the government makes money by law."

After the adoption of the platform the leaders of the fusion and anti-fusion factions announced an agreement and Judge Holcomb, the populist candidate for governor, was indorsed at midnight by a large majority.

May Arrest Detroit's Board of Works.
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—The board of public works yesterday began tearing up the tracks of the Citizens' Street Railway company on Michigan avenue, despite the injunction issued by Judge Swan restraining it from doing so. The work was well under way when an order from Swan was served on the board ordering its members to appear Monday.

Wellman Arrives in New York.
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Walter Wellman arrived at quarantine on the steamer Spree last night. He started from New York March 14 last with a party of fourteen men and strove by the Spitzbergen route to get as near to the north pole as possible. The expedition was a failure on account of the vast fields of drift ice. Mr. Wellman is going to try again in 1896.

SOUTHEAST CYCLONE
SPREAD SPLINTERS

GEORGIA AND SOUTH CAROLINA IN TROUBLE.

Many Cities Along the Atlantic Seaboard Visited by a Destructive Blow—New York May Catch It To-Morrow—Is Coming Northeast with Terrific Force.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 27.—The expected hurricane from the West Indies struck Jacksonville at 11 a. m. yesterday with the wind blowing forty-six miles an hour and rain pouring down in torrents. Business is paralyzed. The Everett, the largest hotel in the city, is unroofed and flooded with water. The loss is $20,000. A number of people are injured, but none killed. There is no communication from South Florida, but it is expected that many orange groves are totally ruined and crops damaged incalculably. Up to 8 o'clock last night ten inches of rain has fallen during the last twenty-four hours.

DAMAGE IN GEORGIA.

Storm Now Raging Will Equal That of Last Year.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 27.—Everything now points to the storm equaling, if not exceeding in violence, the destructive cyclone of August, 1893. At Tybee the wind ranges as high as seventy-five miles an hour. The ocean is steadily encroaching on the island and it is thought it will be submerged completely. Those on the island will have to take refuge in the lighthouse and Martello tower. The quarantine stations, hotels, and cottages there appear to be doomed. Big loss of life on the Sea islands is feared. The rice crop not harvested may be entirely destroyed by an inrush of salt water. The cotton fields along the coast probably are also nearly destroyed. Vessels in the harbor are riding out the gale nicely so far. The town is pretty well covered by cyclone insurance. Five inches of rain has fallen during the last twenty-four hours.

May Reach New York To-morrow.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The reports to the weather bureau show the tropical cyclone is moving northward at the rate of twenty miles an hour and gaining in force at every mile. The telegraph wires south of Jacksonville are all down and communication is almost entirely shut off. Ships here have been warned not to leave port. The full violence of the storm will not be felt here until Friday or later. When it strikes it will reign for two or three days.

Hurricane Moving Northeast.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The indications are that the hurricane now raging in Florida and Georgia will move in a northeasterly direction along the Atlantic coast, probably reaching New York to-night. All the principal towns along the coast from Connecticut to Florida have been warned of violent gales and high tides.

Felt in South Carolina.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., Sept. 27.—A terrible wind storm here has blown down trees and telegraph poles and has done great damage to corn and cotton.

MANY ROADS IN TROUBLE.

Summary Action to Be Taken Against Cincinnati Lines.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 27.—The freight bureau of the Cincinnati chamber of commerce made complaint of the discrimination of freight rates by several railroads against Cincinnati merchants. The inter-state commerce commission met here and established freight tariffs and ordered the roads to adhere to those rates. But the roads have ignored the commission and fixed rates as they chose. Yesterday the commission appeared in court and complained that the Louisville & Nashville and other railroads have violated the inter-state commerce act. Nov. 19 has been set for the hearing. It is also ordered that the proceedings shall be conducted in a summary manner without the formal proceedings applicable to ordering suits in equity.

German Catholics on "Treating."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 27.—At the German Catholic congress yesterday resolutions were adopted denouncing "treating" as conducive to intemperance, saying the custom is almost unknown in Germany; transmitting thanks to Mgr. Satolli; expressing love for the pope; claiming the right as Americans to choose schools and teachers for children, and declaring the German tongue will not diminish the aptitude of German children for business and social life.

Cowboys and Indians Do Battle.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 27.—A pitched battle occurred in the Cheyenne country, four miles west of Hennessy, Ok., yesterday between cowboys and Indians. A band of cowboys came upon a band of Indians who were stealing cattle and hot words ended in an open fight. Two Indians were killed and two cowboys badly wounded.

Unitarians in Conference.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 27.—In the conference of unitarian and other liberal churches yesterday the subject of regeneration was treated in two papers by Revs. Thomas R. Slicer of Buffalo and Francis C. Lowell

POOR LI HUNG CHANG
DOWN HE TUMBLES

CHINESE VICEROY IS TO BE DEPOSED.

Japanese Victories Have Enraged the Emperor of China and He Heaps Blame on the Only Wide Awake Man in His Kingdom—Mikado's Army Moves.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 27.—Li Hung Chang, the Chinese viceroy is to be superseded. This report was given out from reliable sources. The emperor is much incensed over the recent Japanese victories although most of them result from his refusal to accept Li Hung Chang's suggestions as to arming and disciplining troops in years gone by.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A dispatch from Tokio received here to-day confirms the advices received by the Associated Press from Yokohama, Japan, via Victoria, B. C., "that any day may bring news of a battle in northern Korea and of the sailing of 50,000 troops for the same point on the inner coast of the gulf."

The battle in northern Korea has been fought off the mouth of the Yalu river and to-day's dispatch from Tokio says that the second Japanese army for field service, mobilized at Hiroshima and consisting of 30,000 men under the command of Field Marshal Count Oyama, embarked yesterday, amid intense enthusiasm.

The emperor, previous to the departure, reviewed the troops, and the transports, escorted by the second Japanese squadron, sailed away, their destination being unknown, although it is reported vaguely that the squadron is bound for the Yellow sea.

During the absence from Japan of Field Marshal Count Oyama, who is also minister of war, the minister of marine will assume the duties of war in addition to his other responsibilities.

It is officially announced at Tokio, says another dispatch from that city, that the report that an armistice has been proposed by England and Russia is untrue.

English Ship Intercepted.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 27.—A Chinese warship on Friday last intercepted the English ship Pathan in the Formosa channel upon suspicion that she was carrying munitions of war. The Pathan was taken to Kee-Lung, a treaty port of the island of Formosa, where her cargo was overhauled by the Chinese authorities. The result of the investigation is not yet known. The Chinese fear an assault on Peking.

CARS IN A MAD RUSH.

Union Depot at Lafayette, Ind., Is Demolished.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 27.—At 1:30 this morning a Lake Erie & Western freight train going west broke in two on a heavy grade three miles from town. The detached cars, heavily loaded, came rushing back into the city over the Big Four tracks, which are used by the Lake Erie company for several miles out of town. Yardmaster Brightly saved scores of lives, possibly, by turning the wild train into a sidetrack. The detached cars, however, crashed into the Union depot and entirely wrecked the building, and, forcing through South street, ran into the Fottrell company's shoe factory. A cab driver named Washburn is fatally injured. It is feared that other victims are buried in the debris, as the passenger depot was thronged with people a few moments before the accident. The property loss will be upward of $30,000.

Directum Wins Easily.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 27.—The attendance at Mystic park is estimated at 15,000, a glowing tribute on a chilly day to Directum, the king of trotting stallions; Arion, who still holds the record for 3-year-olds, 2:10½; and Nelson, 2:09, the ex-champion, always a favorite in New England. The race was really a gift for the great Directum, he winning three straight heats in 2:12, 2:10 and 2:11½. Arion was second in all three heats. Under the conditions of the race Directum gets $9,000, Arion $4,500, and Nelson $1,500.

Iowa Town Scorched.

MONTICELLO, Iowa, Sept. 27.—Fire broke out at 3:30 this morning in the Pennsylvania house, owned by F. A. Kilburn, and before it could be checked had burned the Democrat office and P. H. Finigan's tailor shop. Total loss, $7,500; insurance, $4,500. The buildings destroyed were all frame.

Christians Perish in Burning House.

Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 27.—The residence of James Couchenour, near Gate City, Va., was burned yesterday and two children met their death in the flames. Mrs. Couchenour was seriously, if not fatally, burned and her husband was badly burned about the hands and face.

Denny to Run Against Owens.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 27.—Judge George Denny, Jr., was unanimously nominated at the Ashland district republican convention here yesterday.

May Get Another Lease of Life.

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., Sept. 27.—The ill-fated schooner Col. Cook may be given another lease of life. The tug S. S. Stane has left here to get the Cook off the beach near Lorain.

NOMINATE HILL WITH A WHOOP

New York Convention Pays No Heed to the Senator's "No."

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The Democratic state convention yesterday declared in favor of United States Senator David Bennett Hill of Albany for governor, Congressman Daniel N. Lockwood of Buffalo for lieutenant-governor, and Judge William J. Gaynor of Brooklyn for associate justice of the Court of Appeals.

When the convention met Senator Hill was made permanent chairman and the assembly at once got down to business. Ex-Assembly E. R. Hitt of Albany presented the name of John Boyd Thatcher for governor and it was regularly seconded.

No other name being offered Clerk DeForest was ordered to call the roll. He had just announced "Allegany" when a delegate arose and said: "The united delegation of Allegany county desires to place in nomination David B. Hill, United States senator, for governor." Then the delegates headed by the Tammany chiefs and other leaders jumped to their feet with a shout and started a stampede in favor of Senator Hill. Pandemonium reigned for several minutes, but finally Senator Hill obtained order and said:

"I am gratified at this spontaneous expression of kindness and support, but I can not be your candidate for governor."

He ordered the clerk to continue calling the roll, but it was useless. Senator Guy, Congressman Bourke Cockran, Col. Brown, Col. Fellows, and others of the Tammany crowd rapidly followed each other in speeches demanding that Senator Hill take the nomination and that it be made by acclamation. Finally it was announced that Hill had received 383 out of 384 votes, and he was declared the nominee. The other nominations were then made by acclamation. After the disposal of the usual perfunctory business the convention adjourned.

Senator Hill's formal acceptance has not yet been given out, but there is not the slightest doubt that he will accept the nomination.

The platform indorses both the national and state administrations. On the tariff it says: "We concur with President Cleveland that the new tariff law does not embody the full issues of tariff reform, but with him also we indorse its provisions for cheaper and freer raw materials and lower taxes as a substantial recognition of democratic principles, and we bespeak for the law an impartial trial, confident that its successful operation will convince the people of the wisdom of democratic policy and induce them to demand its proper extension."

The platform then demands the rigid enforcement of the laws to prevent and control trusts, declares in favor of honest money, liberal pensions and civil service reform. The imposition of the income tax is denounced and the principles and objects of the A. P. A. most severely condemned.

DEATH IN A BIG GALE.

Six Persons Drowned in Lake Michigan Tuesday Night.

MANISTIQUE, Mich., Sept. 27.—The schooner William Hume, consort of the steamer F. R. Buell, sank off Seul Choix point at 11 o'clock Tuesday night during the heavy southeast gale. All of the crew of seven except one man were drowned. There was one woman in the crew. The only survivor, Anton Minga, floated ashore unconscious on a piece of the yawl-boat yesterday afternoon. The body of the woman was picked up on the beach about the same time.

The shore for many miles in either direction from Seul Choix point is strewn with wreckage. The Hume's cargo was valued at $10,000 and insured for $9,500.

BASEBALL.

Games Played in the National League Yesterday.

The positions of the twelve clubs seem fairly well established for the finish, but Pittsburgh still has a faint chance of overtaking Cleveland and capturing sixth place. Games played yesterday were:

TICKET GIVEN A CLEAR FIELD.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 27.—The anti-Tillman caucus adjourned yesterday at 4:30, having decided to make no nomination. The Tillman ticket will go through now without opposition.

JURY PULLS IN NINE
CHICAGO GAMBLERS

BATCH OF INDICTMENTS RETURNED THIS MORNING.

String of the Most Notorious Houses To Be Dealt with in Court—Friends of the Civic Federation's Detective Work Begins To Be Seen.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The Grand jury returned indictments against nine gambling houses this morning. Some arrests were made at once but others of the warrants were held and will be served later.

MORE VESSELS HAVE GONE DOWN

Record of Yesterday's Losses on the Lakes—The Huron Collision.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The steamer Ohio, owned by C. W. Elphicke & Co. of this city, collided with the schooner Ironton at 12:30 o'clock yesterday about ten miles off Presque Isle, on Lake Huron, and within thirty minutes after the schooner stove the big hole in the Ohio's sides the steamer settled and sank to the bottom. The Ironton, which had been a consort of the steamer C. J. Kershaw, swung on after the collision and began to roll—a helpless wreck in the heavy sea. She started to sink rapidly, and her crew took to the boats and a raft. Capt. John Isbester and the crew of sixteen of the steamer Ohio launched the steamer's life-boats and were soon picked up by the schooner Moonlight, also a consort of the steamer Kershaw. The crew of the Ironton did not have time to construct life rafts and their only yawl was stove in by the collision. They seized planks and barrels and struck out for Presque Isle. Two were picked up by the steamer Charles Hebard and taken to Soo. The names of the missing sailors of the Ironton are not known. They are supposed to be safe on shore somewhere in the vicinity of Detour. The first mate of the Ohio, Arnel Hodge, had a terrible experience in the choppy sea of Lake Huron. For two hours he battled with the waves and endeavored to reach the shore. When nearly exhausted by exposure and the cold water the Kershaw's lookout discovered the shipwrecked mate and took him aboard.

According to the last trip sheet of the steamer Ohio, received by Capt. Elphicke, the crew of the Ohio consisted of the following: Captain, J. W. ISBESTER. First mate, ARNEL HODGE. Second mate, F. B. CADY. Chief engineer, WILLIAM FRAZIER. Second engineer, JOHN BRADLEY. Steward, WILLIAM DOLAND. Second steward, CHARLES GRINNELL. Watchmen, JOHN BURKE and ARTHUR MCGRAW. Wheelmen, D. C. ANDERSON and D. D. BALL. Firemen, FRANK CASSIDY and FRANK FULLERTON. Deck hands, THOMAS CROSSNELL and HENRY SCHILLER.

The Ohio was cut to the water's edge abreast of the boiler house, the schooner's prow crushing in the timbers for an area of 200 square feet. The Ironton's great momentum is explained by the fact that she was laden with soft coal to the extent of her net burden, 74 tons.

MANY BOATS STORM BOUND.

Forced to Seek Shelter from the Fury of the Gale at Various Points.

GLEN HAVEN, Sept. 27.—The steamers Commodore, Argonaut, Montele and J. D. Marshall are storm bound here.

PEQUAMING, Sept. 27.—The steamer George King and consort are sheltered here from the heavy southwest gale. The C. L. Young has her foremast broken close to her deck.

LUDINGTON, Sept. 27.—The Hilton, Allmendinger and St. Joseph are sheltered here.

THE DEBS TRIAL.

Attorney C. S. Darrow Uses Some Very Strong Language.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—In his argument in behalf of Debs et al, before Judge Woods yesterday, Mr. Darrow said: "Under a fair interpretation, aside from any question of jurisdiction of this court, under a fair interpretation of these men's acts, is their one provision that has been violated by them? The court did not enjoin them from carrying on the Pullman boycott. They were enjoined from any conspiracy against inter-state commerce upon the railroads named in the injunction. According to the prosecution, these defendants had interfered in only one way, by carrying on a strike. The court had not enjoined them from stopping work. No court could command a man not to quit work. The prosecution said: 'They tied up railroads.' This meant that the men had left the employment of the roads until the companies had been compelled to discontinue the running of trains. They had a perfect right to quit work upon any provocation. Every workman in this country has the right to stop work or continue work at his own will and pleasure. Every workman has the right to ask advice of any person in the world as to whether he should quit work. In this case, irrespective of the boycott of Pullman cars, when these men did nothing but persuade employees of the roads to stop work."

PAVING ON THE HILL WILL BE DELAYED

NEW MILWAUKEE STREET GRADE ESTABLISHED.

Aldermen Will Circulate Another Petition, and in Case a Majority of Property Owners Fail To Sign, the Council Will Order Improvements as They Did Once Before.

A change in the grade of East Milwaukee street makes a delay in paving necessary. However, the street may yet be paved by November 1, the date previously fixed for completion. When Mayor Thoroughgood called the council to order last evening, he announced that the meeting had been called for the purpose of considering the bids for the paving of East Milwaukee street, but that he could not see how the bids could be considered at this time. Before the council proceeded with this improvement it must be assured by the city attorney that everything was right. The question of the grade of that street had been raised by some of the interested property owners, and it would be the proper thing to settle this before work was begun.

City Clerk Bates announced that several contractors were present with bids, but that he had informed them that he had understood the council would not consider the bids at this meeting, consequently no bids had been filed with him.

New Grade For Milwaukee Street.

Alderman Rich presented an order which was adopted, instructing the city engineer to prepare and file a grade for East Milwaukee street, said grade to conform as nearly as possible to the grade established in 1857. In a few moments the city engineer presented a profile of the grade as instructed, explaining in detail the different sections of the street. In the main it was the same as the original grade. On motion of Alderman Rich this grade was adopted in lieu of all other grades on East Milwaukee street.

Alderman Winslow introduced an ordinance repealing an ordinance passed in September, 1854, establishing the grade of East Milwaukee street. The ordinance was read the first and second time, the rules suspended and the ordinance was read a third time and passed. Alderman Hedges introduced an order which was adopted, providing for the building of sidewalks on Pearl street in Heild's addition. The council then adjourned, with an understanding that another meeting of the council should be called for this evening, to take further action relating to paving East Milwaukee street.

Considerable formality is required in matters of paving a street, especially when objections are filed. Aware of these formalities, the common council is moving cautiously.

Another Paving Petition Out.

Today Aldermen Child and Winslow are circulating a petition among the East Milwaukee property owners, asking that the street between the east line of Main and the east line of Division street be paved. If a majority sign the petition, very little will be left for the council to do, except to advertise for bids and let the contract. But in case a majority fails or refuses to sign, the council, at the meeting this evening, will appoint a committee of one alderman from each ward, who will examine the street, and upon the report of this committee the council will take action. In case the committee is of the opinion that the street is in good condition and does not require paving, then there is no further action on the part of the council, that body being powerless to act. In case the committee favors paving, the council will then have authority to proceed, let the contract and supervise the work.

It is intimated that a majority of property owners will refuse to sign the paving petition, as they have once before, and that the special committee will be appointed as the charter provides. All the east side aldermen are in favor of paving, while all the west side aldermen voted to sustain the previous report of the committee favoring the pavement. This action would indicate that no matter how the petition is signed, the street improvement is bound to proceed.

OLD HOUSE TELLS MANY

Fire Touches a Building That Has Seen Janesville Change From a Village.

The fire at G. A. Warren's house on the corner of North Franklin and Race streets, yesterday, has revived some early day reminiscences. The house was built by the late Frank Kimball far back in Janesville's history. Mr. Kimball occupied it for a time as his residence, and finally sold it to F. M. Norton, who occupied it as a residence. Mr. Norton sold the house to an eastern man for $3,300, and he to B. F. Crossett for $1,750. Mr. Crossett lived in the house a number of years, and finally sold it to Mr. Newett for $2,750, just one thousand more than he gave but he had added many improvements to the house and grounds. Mr. Crossett built the veranda, (which was partly destroyed yesterday) in 1863. Since it passed to Mr. Newett it has changed hands many times, until now it is owned by Mr. Warren. Before the railway embankment was built in front of the house, it was one of the handsomest residences in the city, occupying a beautiful knoll, elevated just high enough to command a view of the whole city, which at that time lay south of Race street. The railway company paid Mr. Norton one thousand dollars damages for taking a little piece off the corner of his lot. After the premises came into the possession of Mr. Crossett Franklin street was graded, cutting the street down a number of feet in front of the lot, and Mr. Crossett brought suit against the city recovering $1,750 damages. Much of this money he spent in building terraces and the stone wall, the wreck of which is still standing. The house was built of Janesville red brick but paint has changed the color many times. The house, once looked upon as one of the most substantial and ornamental in the village, now takes a back seat in the ornamental line.

FIFTY FOLKS GO TO ELKHORN FAIR

Many People Turn Out For the Walworth County Show.

About fifty people went to Elkhorn this morning to attend the Walworth county fair, over the St. Paul, via Eagle. The train was made up of nine coaches and two baggage cars, many passengers being from stations west of the city.

"I was at the fair yesterday," said L. P. Wilcox, one of the employees of the St. Paul, "and I never saw a county fair with such a jam of people. They say ten thousand people were on the ground in the afternoon, mostly children. Today will see another big crowd. Our train will be loaded down to standing room on the platforms before we pass Eagle. You see over in Walworth county they offer cash premiums for everything. Thirty dollars for best display of farm machinery. Even a common yellow pumpkin gets a cash premium. In the stallion race yesterday there were eighty entries. The show is immense. In fact, I never saw better or more exhibits at any county fair. The fire yesterday morning came near burning everything on the grounds. Two fine horses were burned, one valued at $2,500. The buildings destroyed were the large stables near the entrance gate. The wind was fortunately in the right direction, blowing the flames away from the other buildings, giving the men a better opportunity to protect them."

Money Made Easily.

Several of the Janesville purchasers of lots at Columbia, Wis. have sold their lots for ten times what they paid in less than a year after buying. Special inducements are offered until October 15. Over 1,400 lots sold and if you want a lot for a little money, buy it now. Prices $5 to $50.

"You are almost a man. You ought not to go about asking people for help when you are able to earn a living by working for it. Can't you find a job of any kind?"

"Yes'm, I was offered a job the other day, but I didn't think the pay was big enough. All they would give me was $4 a week."

"You could have got $4 a week?"

"Yes'm."

"Well, that's a great deal better than nothing. If you could earn as much as that at the beginning and stick to your work faithfully you would be certain to get a raise some day, wouldn't you?"

"Y-yes'm, I guess so. It was in a dynamite factory."—Chicago Tribune.

Genuine Agnostics.

The man with the red whiskers looked defiant.

"No, sir," he declared, "I won't believe anything I can't see for myself."

The pale party pondered.

"Very well," he said, after a moment. "I was going to tell you your necktie's up behind, but I suppose it's no good if you feel that way."—Answers.

Harvest Excursions.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. CHEAPER TO EAT PIE THAN POTATOES.

JANESVILLE GROCERS TALK OF HIGHER PRICES.

Their Bins Empty and Growers in the Waupaca District Say 75 Cents is the Best They Can Do For Poor Stock—Housekeepers Are Getting Anxious.

Hundreds of Janesville families whose potato bins are empty are considerably exercised for fear it may cost big money to fill those same bins. In other words, the potato crop in Rock county, as far as merchantable potatoes are concerned, is a failure, and the local demand in a very large measure, must be supplied from other localities. The very incomplete returns made by the Rock county assessors credit the county with devoting about twenty-four hundred acres of land to potato growing. With an average of sixty bush to the acre the supply would be ample, but this season the yield is far below the average. Besides this, the potatoes are very small. Some insist that half the potatoes grown are not merchantable owing to their small size.

Reports from the potato growing sections of northern Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota are of a contradictory nature as to the yield and condition of the crop. Waupaca dealers say consumers in this vicinity must look elsewhere for their supply.

Car Load Lots Bring 70 Cents a Bushel.

Potatoes are now selling in car lots in Janesville at seventy and eighty cents a bushel, and are retailing at about eighty and ninety cents a bushel, and the best are not equal to the potatoes ordinarily raised in Rock county.

"I believe we will be obliged to import potatoes from Canada," said Grocer F. S. Winslow. "I have written to a number of places and cannot get a supply of first class potatoes. No good potatoes have been raised in our potato country this year, and all the answers I have received are to the same effect. One man in northern Wisconsin writes me that he can send me a car load at seventy-five cents but says they are small and possibly may not suit. It will cost me about four cents a bushel for freight, besides handling here. So you see the price of small potatoes is likely to be high. We can get plenty of potatoes in Canada but Canada potatoes are not as good as our varieties. Our potatoes are grown in sandy soil, while in Canada it is all clay soil."

Rock County's Supply Is Short.

Not half the potatoes consumed in Janesville are grown in Rock county. Merchants buy and ship the same as grain is bought and shipped, and frequently grocers, who filled their cellars in the fall, buy in car lots of distant growers and shippers. Rock county tubers in like quantity, are shipped to outside markets.

"I don't believe potatoes are going to be lower this winter, said a prominent grocer; 'the potatoes are not to be had; I believe that the price will soon advance, and would not be surprised to see them retail at one dollar.'"

After the Accident.

Bystander—Doctor, what do you think of this man's injuries?

Doctor—Humph! Two of them are undoubtedly fatal; but as for the rest of them time alone can tell.—Texas Siftings.

OH! FOR STRONG NERVES.

What Does That Dreadful Feeling Mean?

Can It Be That Insanity Is Staring Me in the Face?

That Tired and Exhausted Feeling Means More Than You Think.

The nervous system is fearfully delicate. It is easily deranged, and when it is, beware. The symptoms are debility, tired feeling, inability for much work, trembling, anxiety, depression of mind, nervousness and often sleeplessness and dull feeling head in the morning.

These lead to nervous prostration, paralysis or insanity. You run a terrible risk in neglecting any of these symptoms. You can be cured now. If you neglect yourself you will soon become a hopeless wreck, as Mrs. W. A. Tinkham, of Stowe, Vt., did. She writes the following about herself:

"About six months ago I found myself in an extreme nervous condition. This had been gradually growing upon me for several years and I cannot tell what I suffered, it was beyond description. I got no rest or sleep nights and my work was done in constant agony."

"I imagined there was some impending evil constantly hanging over me and could not rid myself of the idea that insanity was in store for me. I knew better than to do lots of things that I did do but could not help it."

"I was indeed a wreck and was on the point of giving up in despair. I employed physicians who did me no good and my condition continually grew worse."

MRS. W. A. TINKHAM.

"Finally a friend told me to try Dr. Greene's blood and nerve remedy. I commenced taking it and before using the first bottle up there was decided improvement. I have now used most three bottles and am entirely cured of all my trouble."

"I sleep well and work is comfortably and easily done. In fact, I do all my work for a large family, which I was unable to do before and have not done for five years before taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy."

"I attribute my cure entirely to this wonderful medicine and most cordially recommend it to all mankind. Please publish this letter for the good of others."

There are countless numbers of persons in different stages of nervous complaints. They are not sick, but are just out of order, have weak nerves and tired bodies. You are one of them and you need Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It cures all such diseases quickly and permanently. Try it, and feel your nerves grow strong and your health return. It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th Street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

A GREAT PALACE.

Splendors of the Golden Chamber of Constantinople.

According to Bishop Liutprand of Cremona in his account of his embassy to the court of Nicephorus Phocas, the golden chamber of Constantinople was the most splendid part of the whole palace. If Justin rebuilt it, Theophilus and Constantine VII did much for its decoration. Theophilus made a silver table "for the accommodation of the guests, and the adornment of the palace," in which so many foreigners and courtiers feasted with the emperor. A great chandelier hung from the center of the hall over the table.

The famous golden tree, so often mentioned in accounts of the palace, was constructed by Theophilus. "Birds sitting on the branches sung by mechanism, the air being supplied by concealed passages." The walls were ornamented with mirrors and colored tiles, affording the more pleasure to guests owing to the delicious nature of the viands." Besides making the silver doors (into the Tripeton). Constantine VII ornamented the walls and ceiling of the Chrysotriklinos with flowers and leaves, framed in silver circles.

In the Golden Chamber, the most striking object must have been the Pentapylon, of which, unluckily, no accurate description has survived. It was "a magnificent structure of wood, covered with gold. Within and without it was hung a great variety of decorations, golden ornaments and the imperial robes." At the feast of Easter, it was the custom that a small table should be placed for the emperor in the Pentapylon, while the foreign ambassadors whom he invited dined at the golden table below him. Thus it would seem to have been a sort of throne arranged for the purposes of a dining-hall.

CRAZY MAN CARRIED THROUGH THE DEPOT

TWO OFFICERS HAD HARD WORK HOLDING HIM.

Sad Scene at the C. M. & St. P. Train This Morning—Loss of Three Children Within a Month Caused His Insanity—Diphtheria Blighted His Home.

With his eyes rolling in his head and a strong man tugging at each arm, John Goff was worked into the waiting room of the St. Paul depot this morning.

Mania of a dangerous sort was evident.

Goff's home is at Argyle, Wisconsin, and he is violently and dangerously insane. He was on his way to Mendota in charge of the sheriff of Lafayette county. He had made no trouble on the trip until Janesville was reached. Here, when they took him from the train he rebelled and the sheriff called on Officer Kruse to help him. Between the two men he was half carried and half dragged to a seat and both men had to keep a strong grip on him to keep him down. He was a pitiful looking object with disheveled hair, distorted features, shining eyes and disordered clothing. Quite a crowd gathered before he was put aboard the train.

Goff lost three children by diphtheria within one month a few years ago, and this, coupled with financial troubles affected his mind.

Easy to Cure, But—

Doctor—So your husband is ailing again.

Mrs. Slimpurse—Yes; it's insomnia now. He can't sleep a wink.

"Ah, I'll soon cure him of that."

"Yes, I am sure you can."

"Thanks for your confidence. He is worried about something, I presume."

"Indeed he is, poor man. He lies awake all night wondering how he is ever going to pay your last bill."—N. Y. Weekly.

Clarify.

He stood with bowed head for a moment.

His attitude was one of indecision.

"Will you?" he asked at length, "make yourself clearer?"

"No—"

As she spoke her eyes wandered to the great pier mirror opposite.

"I like my complexion just as it is."

With a sigh he left her forever.—Detroit Free Press.

Not at All.

He watched the flames in the grate as they whirled into all sorts of fantastic shapes.

"Are you not," he finally asked, "begging the question?"

She turned upon him with flashing eyes.

"No, sir," she answered, frigidly. "I would inform you that I am quite indifferent whether you propose to me or not."—Detroit Tribune.

Not at All Superstitious.

Pompous Maiden Lady (engaging servant, who has taken the liberty to sit down without being asked)—Do you know that it is a great breach of etiquette for anyone to sit down in the presence of their superiors?

Bridget—Lor', yes, mum; but kape your seat; I don't believe in them ancient superstitions.—Amusing Journal.

Where Realism Fails.

Friend—I presume you have become a follower of the modern realistic school, and picture life as it actually is? Successful Author—Oh, no. I wouldn't do in my case. I am a society novelist.

"What difference need that make?" "I must make my characters say bright things."—N. Y. Weekly.

The Ducks Were Them.

Charlie—I don't think those bullet-proof suits are so very wonderful that people should make the fuss they do over them, doncher know.

Ned—My dear boy, it's a great invention.

Charlie—Nonsense! Every duck I ever shot at had one on.—Judge.

A Friend's Advice.

"Of course it's none of my business, dear," said Mildred to Amy, "but if I were you I wouldn't marry Mr. Spatters."

"Why not?"

"With all your money, you ought to be able to get a really handsome man."

—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

Too Confident.

"I am not worthy of your love," said the lover, sadly.

"I don't doubt it," said she, a little less softly.

And there their softness ended.—Puck.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

An Artist on a Sketching Tour Drops Into a Nest of Snakes.

"I had an experience last year which I think was sufficiently thrilling to satisfy the most adventurous mind," said A. D. Cooper, a St. Louis artist, to a Globe-Democrat man. "I was down in Georgia on a sketching tour, and one afternoon wandered off into the forest and sat down on the trunk of a fallen tree to contemplate the beauties of nature. I had only been there a few minutes when my interest was riveted on the wonderful saffron and gray hues of one of the exposed roots of a tree near where I was sitting. These views were almost metallic, and I regretted that I had not brought my colors with me, so that I could make a note of them. In gazing about me I observed on one of the interlacing bows above me a similar effect though this time it was of a greenish-black tint."

"While sitting and admiring those lovely effects of color, to which the sun gave tinselled beauty, I was suddenly seized with a fascination, which even now I recall with a sense of horror; in that second of time I realized that a green snake of considerable size was staring at me with its luminous, flame-colored eyes, within a short distance from where I sat. The next instant I happily recovered myself, and started to my feet. At the same moment the saffron-gray trunk near me, which I had so greatly admired only a few minutes before, slowly unwound itself; it was another reptile of the same kind. My supposed greenish-black, metallic tinted bough had at the same instant wriggled down to an open space, unpleasantly near my feet, and several tendril branches, as I had supposed them to be, commenced to show signs of snake animation. In fact, much to my consternation, I found myself to be in a very hot-bed of snakes; the place was literally alive with them."

"I am no naturalist, and I cannot give you their names, neither can I tell whether their bite would kill a buffalo or a butterfly, but I only know that it was with a feeling of immense relief that I found myself safe upon the highway, and lost no time in putting a considerable distance between myself and that dreaded spot."

Rev. O. S. Stringfield of Wakefield, N. C., says: "Five boxes of Japanese Pile Cure cured me after twelve years' suffering." Sold by Smiths' Pharmacy.

SAVED 27 CENTS AT GREAT COST

Robert Schilling, the socialistic advocate, gave utterance to some facts concerning the tariff the other night, that are worth repeating. He said that under the McKinley bill and republican rule the revenue from the tariff amounted to $196,000,000, or as he put it a per capita of $2.80, while under the Wilson bill the amount derived is $178,000,000 or 27 cents per capita less.

This great saving (?) of twenty-seven cents is the result of a ten months' struggle with a democratic congress that has been the laughing stock of the entire country. It has meant to the labor of the country a loss of more than $200,000,000 in wages and paralysis of business industries that will be felt for years to come.

The laboring man who votes the democratic ticket this year will vote it to save twenty-seven cents. If he will take an inventory of his income for the past twelve months he will find that he is short any where from one hundred dollars to three times that amount in wages. That's economy with a vengeance.

Cold facts about the business of the country are better than the political fairy tales now being disseminated by democrats. Dun's commercial reports say that while there is an improvement of ten per cent. over the mid-summer dullness, the country is still twenty-five per cent. below the average. That is the sort of "good times" the democrats have brought us, for which they ask to be continued in power.

The nomination of David B. Hill for governor is significant or the desperate straits of the democratic party. Mr. Hill is the acknowledged leader of the discordant element that for months has worried and annoyed the administration. Recognition by the New York democracy means insult to the national party and the executive, that can only increase the prevailing discontent. The Empire state will lead the van of republican victories this year.

Instead of challenging history to support his absurd misstatements, Senator Voorhees should call upon his democratic colleagues in the senate to tell the Indiana voters how he wobbled on the tariff question; also, about that anti-Cleveland speech he prepared and promised to deliver, but never did.

While free trade Wilson is being dined and wineed on the other side by his bosom friends, a liberal per centage of his party are seriously asking this question: "What's the matter with America for Americans?" That question was settled in the republican camp years ago, and the verdict, which will be emphasized in November is that America is the best country under the sun for Americans, either home-grown or adopted.

The London chamber of commerce showed its gratitude for tariff favors received and yet to come, by banquetting Congressman Wilson, of West Va. The voters in Wilson's district will show what they think by retiring him next November.

Congressman Bryan isn't the first man who has lost a reputation, made by two or three carefully prepared speeches, by attempting to furnish a similar brand of eloquence for the editorial columns of a daily paper.

There are men in this vicinity who selected their own wives, who believe that much sympathy is being wasted upon the czarewitsch because his relatives have selected the girl he is to marry.

It seems from the number of old congressmen who have failed of re-nomination that there is to be a change of men as well as of policy in the next congress.

The White House has been given a fresh coat of paint, but the administration, which needs it much worse, still has its spots and blemishes uncovered.

The administration did not make a very striking success of its attempt to oust Dave Hill from the control of the democratic machine in New York.

The democratic editors of Louisiana must consider the situation desperate; they have begun to shout "no nigger domination."

Comptroller Eckels mistakes the opening of the banquet season for the beginning of an era of national prosperity.

Dave Hill still has his yellow jacket and his peacock feather, too, notwithstanding Emperor Grover's edict.

THE REPUBLICAN CLUB'S MEETING

Tomorrow Night Plans for the Campaign Will be Discussed.

Plans for the campaign will be discussed at the meeting of the Young Men's Republican club tomorrow evening. As many as possible of the county candidates will be present, and the meeting will take the shape of an informal discussion of ways and means. There will be brief and lively addresses by local candidates and announcements of interest to club members will be made. The meeting is set for 7:30 in the municipal court room.

Miss Flint Here With Her Father.

Little Miss Flint, who accompanies her father on his coming visit to this city, is herself a most excellent hypnotist, and almost rivals her father as a laugh-producer. His ability is well known here, and the announcement of a pair of such laugh-makers appearing together should pack the house. They open their engagement Monday, October 1, at the Myers opera house.

MISCONSTRUED.

The Duke of Wellington Would Have Failed at Proof-Reading.

The duke of Wellington, when sitting in the lords, received a letter from an eminent landscape designer, J. C. Loudon. The duke had lost sight of him for some years. It was a note to this effect: "My LORD DUKE: It would gratify me extremely if you would permit me to visit Strathfieldsaye, at any time convenient to your grace, and to inspect the Waterloo beeches. Your grace's faithful servant, J. C. LOUDON." The Waterloo beeches were trees that had been planted immediately after the battle of Waterloo as a memorial of the great fight. The duke read the letter twice, the writing of which was not very clear, and, with his usual promptness and politeness, replied as follows, having read the signature as "C. J. Loudon" instead of "J. C. Loudon": "MY DEAR BISHOP OF LONDON: It will always give me great pleasure to see you at Strathfieldsaye. Pray come whenever it suits your convenience, whether I am at home or not. My servant will receive orders to show you as many pairs of breeches of mine as you wish; but why you should wish to inspect those that I wore at the Battle of Waterloo is quite beyond the comprehension of yours, most truly, WELLINGTON."

Artificial Stone.

The use of artificial stone for sidewalks appears to be increasing. It is now quite common when a new building or one under repairs has progressed sufficiently so that no more heavy materials are to be handled over the sidewalk, to see the artificial stone men come and lay, quickly, of plastic material, a sidewalk that soon hardens. There is a great difference in these sidewalks. Something may depend upon the nature of the soil under them and much upon the character of the foundation and of the material used and the work done in laying it. Some speedily crack, and become unsightly, and some remain perfect and true and wear beautifully.

Another Mystery.

RAISING A BRIDGE.

Lifted Five Feet Without Interrupting Railroad Traffic.

The raising of a bridge in Switzerland upon the line of the International railway, from Paris to Vienna, has attracted considerable attention from the methods pursued. The occasion for the change, says Locomotive Engineering, was that the river crossed—the Rhine—had lost in the sectional area of the passage between the piers, about twenty-five per cent in thirteen years, owing to the deposition of gravel and sediment, while the high water level had risen to such an extent as to pile floating debris six feet deep on the bridge floor in times of flood. The alterations included some reinforcements, besides the raising of the whole structure about five feet. The bridge was continuous over a center pier, and had two main vertical posts there and four vertical end posts. To each of these posts an inclined strut was attached in a transverse vertical plane, presenting a surface for the top of a hydraulic jack to act upon. Eight special 100-ton jacks were used, with an eight-inch stroke and a working pressure of 400 atmospheres, the piston being nearly 0.7 in diameter. The fluid used was a mixture of water, alcohol and glycerine. Sixteen men operated the jacks, their movements being synchronized by a code of signals designed to secure uniformity of action. The bridge was raised a foot or two by short lifts, followed by thoroughly blocking, and then building under one course of cut stone masonry. The total load was 546 tons, and the maximum load on a single jack was eighty-seven tons. The bridge was raised in four stages during intervals between trains. The longest interval between trains was about two hours. The weight of trains was rigidly restricted during the time the bridge was undergoing repairs, and their speed was limited to three miles an hour in crossing the bridge. In addition, a special block system was organized upon that section of the line upon which the bridge is located, so that operations could be suspended and the track restored five minutes before the arrival of a train at the site.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY!

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nervous system is like a telegraph system as will be seen by the accompanying cut. The little white lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric currents are conveyed along the telegraph wires to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nerve centers for the cause of the disorders arising therefrom they treat the parts affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many treatises on the latter subject, has since realized the truth of the first statement, and his Restorative Nerve is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing all diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manufacturing this medicine amply prove.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous debility, prostration, dizziness, drowsiness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus' dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee. Present direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co. at a cure, or receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. Restorative Nerve positively contains no opiates or dangerous drugs.

and from all such disfigurements and blemishes, follows the use of the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. It clears and freshens the skin wonderfully—takes away that dull and mottled look that comes from stomach derangements. Even in chronic and stubborn cases of skin disorders, like eczema, it is the prescribed remedy.

The blood, the liver, the stomach, the kidneys—all are acted upon powerfully, but naturally, by the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. You get the same benefit, the same cure, the same feeling of lightness and clearness all through your system, as if you were at Carlsbad itself.

Beware of the many imitations sold as "improved" or "artificial" Carlsbad Salt. These are only mixtures of Seidlitz Powder and common Glauber Salt, sold by unscrupulous dealers for the larger profit they yield.

Insist upon the genuine imported, natural Carlsbad Sprudel Salt, which is evaporated from the Sprudel Spring at Carlsbad, and bears the seal of the city and the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON Co., Sole Agents, New York," on every bottle.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

Solved the Problem.

Miss Strongmind—Pardon me, but if I am not mistaken you are one of the poor, underpaid working girls that our Emancipation society tried to benefit—or at least you were two years ago.

Fair Stranger—That is true.

"Then our society has evidently not been without influence, for you look very prosperous now."

"I have everything I want, and never was so happy in my life."

"Thank heaven! You must have solved the woman problem."

"I have."

"Glorious! Tell me how you managed."

"I married a nice young man."—N. Y. Weekly.

Neat and Neighborly.

Strange Child—Please, mamma wants to know if you will lend her your dog?

New Neighbor—Why does she want my dog?

"Cause he has such thick, curly hair, you know!"

"Really, I don't understand."

"Guess you must have lived where folks wasn't very particular."

"Perhaps."

"Yes. My mamma is awful particular 'bout keepin' our house free from fleas, an' there is some there now—and you know fleas likes dogs with thick, curly hair."—Good News.

That Was the Trouble.

"Your daughter is very hard to get along with," said a young married man to his mother-in-law.

"You must make allowance for her," replied the old lady, conciliatingly.

"That's the very trouble. She wants an allowance amounting to more than my entire earnings."—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

HOLDING HIS OWN.

—St. Louis Republic.

Supporting the National Colors.

Fred—They hold up the red, white and blue pretty well over to Hickey's.

Ted—How is that?

"Nearly every time I go over there Hickey's boy is red where his father spanked him last, Hickey himself is white with rage and the air is blue with escaped expressions."—Boston Courier.

The Shoe on the Other Foot.

"Tommy, where is your new poll parrot?"

"I lent it to the man that runs the canalboat."

"Does he want to teach it profanity?"

"No, indeed. He said he wanted to borrow it and get a few points."—Washington Star.

The Book Required.

Mr. Bondstock (tenderly)—Do you think you could learn to love me?

Miss Wurkum (shyly)—I might if you gave me lessons from the right book.

Mr. Bondstock—What book shall I teach you from?

Miss Wurkum—Your pocketbook.—N. Y. World.

Quite a Resemblance.

"It is queer that the greatest American and the most prominent modern Englishman are remembered in connection with wood cutting."

"How is that?"

"George Washington had his little hatchet and Gladstone has his ax."—Detroit Free Press.

He Disliked the Coachman.

Husband—Our coachman wants a week off to get married.

Wife—Well, you ain't going to give it to him, are you?

Husband—Yes; why not? I don't see why he should be exempt from suffering and misery.—Texas Siftings.

Statistics Later On.

"Are you very badly hurt, Mr. Get-along?" inquired the anxious neighbor, sitting down by the side of the bed.

"I don't know how badly I'm hurt," said the victim of the railway accident, feebly, "until I've seen my lawyer."—Chicago Tribune.

A Widow in Spe.

"Although I am a septuagenarian, remember I'm a millionaire. Could you learn to love me? Am I too old for you?"

"On the contrary, you are too young."—Truth.

True to His Nationality.

Mrs. Bewtlay—Yes, Patrick, that is my picture; but it flatters me a little.

Patrick—It would have to flatter you a good deal, mum, to look as well as you do in my eyes, mum.—Boston Transcript.

Wise Mrs. Crummer.

Carson—I hear that Crummer's wife made him swear off smoking.

Vokes—No. She made him swear off buying tobacco, and now he sponges on his friends for what he needs.—N. Y. Herald.

Unjust.

He—A girl actually proposed to me the other night.

She—Did you tell her that you would be a sister to her?—Brooklyn Life.

More About Those Feet.

A Chicago girl stood on the edge of the street, and elegant was her pose.

And while she was posing a trolley car passed and ran right over her toes!

FINANCIALLY EMBARRASSED.

Why De Quincy Asked the Shop-Boy for a Temporary Loan.

An apprentice of a famous London bookseller's, coming one morning to take down the shutters and open the shop, found himself addressed by the occupant of a hackney carriage, which was standing at the door.

"I am Mr. De Quincy, and I presume that you are one of the young gentlemen who assist Mr. Tait in conducting his business. I am at the moment much embarrassed for want of a sum of money; the difficulty will not, however, I assure you, be permanent, but it is in the meantime most urgent, and I fancied that even at this early hour I should be able to obtain the required amount by coming here."

The lad thought he might be wanting a five-pound note at least, says the Argonaut, so he said to him, anxiously: "How much do you require, Mr. de Quincy?"

"You see, young sir, arriving at my journey's end, I shall require to pay the coachman his fare, including a small gratuity to himself—not less than three shillings in all—and having but half a crown in my pocket, I am anxious to be accommodated with the loan of sixpence." Not less astonished than relieved, the apprentice handed the coin to him at once, and, after thanking his benefactor profusely for his great politeness, Mr. de Quincy drove off.

"Hail to the Chief."

This half the title of an old song. The balance is, "Who in triumph advances." The public, the press and the medical profession chant this refrain as especially applicable to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, chief among American remedies and preventatives for malaria, constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, unquiet sleep, rheumatic twinges, and the troubles incident to advanced age. It is also incident to advanced age. It is also universally recognized as a reliable tonic and aperient. As a family medicine particularly suitable to emergencies it has no equal. The nervous, the feeble seek its aid, and the happiest results follow. The convalescent, the aged and the infirm derive infinite benefit from its use. Against the influences of impure air, bad water, unaccustomed food, overwork and exposure it is a genuine preventative.

Kill Him.

That was the decision in the Prentiss case of the assassination of Mayor Harrison of Chicago. That is your verdict in regard to your hair providing you do not take care of it. If your hair has already fallen out and your head is bald you should consult some one at once who makes a specialty of the hair. Where the follicles are present there is a cure for you. An examination which will cost you nothing, may prove of endless value to you. Professor Birkholz, the German hair specialist of Chicago, where he may be consulted in private, and free of charge, by those who desire treatment. An examination will cost you nothing, and should he find that there is the slightest chance to cure you he will treat you under guarantee to cure or ask no pay. Call or address Prof. Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago.

Hand this notice to any first class druggist and he will get the Kennedy for you at once, if he has not got it in stock.

SCROFULA

Miss Della Stevens, of Boston, Mass., writes: I have always suffered from hereditary Scrofula, for which I tried various remedies, and many reliable physicians, but none relieved me. After taking six bottles of SSS I am now well. I am very grateful to you, as I feel that it saved me from a life of untold agony, and shall take pleasure in speaking only words of praise for the wonderful medicine, and in recommending it to all.

Flies for War.

Since Turpin's invention for destroying an army wholesale, the professor of one of the principal colleges in Paris has proposed to the French minister of war that large blowflies should be bred and kept in large cages, being fed upon blood between the artificial skin of lay figures dressed up in the German uniform. When war was declared these flies would be rendered venomous by feeding them on the sap of tropical plants and taken to the front in their cages, from which they would be released and make short work of the enemy. Another patriot suggests that dogs should be trained to bite lay figures wearing the German uniform, and that each soldier should be accompanied by a dog in time of war.

Wonderful Power of Serpents.

The power of continuing motionless, with the lifted head projecting forward for an indefinite time is one of the most wonderful of the serpent's muscular feats, and is one of the highest importance to the animal, both when fascinating its victim and when mimicking some inanimate object, as, for instance, the stem and bud of an aquatic plant; here it is only referred to on account of the effect it produces on the human mind, as enhancing the serpent's strangeness. In this attitude, with the round, unwinking eyes fixed on the beholder's face, the effect may be very curious and uncanny.

John R. Gentry Shows a 1:46 Clip.

GALESBURG, Ill., Sept. 27.—John R. Gentry, owing to the strong wind yesterday, was not sent to beat Robert J.'s record, but the crowd was treated to an exhibition heat. The great stallion was not speeded until he reached the last quarter. He made this in 29¼ seconds, and the last eighth in 13¼ seconds. Old horsemen say they never saw a horse go at such a terrific pace as did John R. Gentry this last eighth, and they believe he will yet beat Robert J.'s record, 2:01½.

Collapse of a Big Grand Stand.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 27.—At Worthington, this state, yesterday afternoon, the grand stand at the fair grounds collapsed during the races and went down with a crash. Over 500 people were piled up in the debris. Thirty persons were injured, some of them quite seriously, but none were killed.

Reunion of Crocker's Brigade.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Sept. 27.—The seventh biennial reunion of Crocker's famous Iowa brigade, the Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth regiments, began here yesterday. About 500 of the brigade are in attendance.

A Boston genius has utilized as a car fender the revolving brush, which is commonly used for street cleaning purposes. When a person gets in the way he is literally swept from the track.

Mayor Remis on the Stand.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 27.—In the Bemis impeachment trial yesterday the mayor occupied the stand. He went into all the minute details concerning the troubles with the Omaha gamblers, and produced records of the fire and police commissioners showing his efforts to regulate the civil in accord with the demands of the best element of Omaha. The prosecution lays much stress on this feature of the case.

Kentucky Coal Mine Caves In.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Sept. 27.—The Nalls coal mine is reported to have caved in at midnight. Several miners were caught in the shaft.
